Panama City Pilot,
Panama City, Florida.

My dear Madam,

I have just read the editorial,"The First Editorial", and the article, "Faith in West Florida", appearing in the"Pilot" of March 24, 1932.

They both speak eloquently of my long-time friend, Mr. G.M.West, and I want to thank you for both of them. I knew Mr. West in his railroad days, and later, in his development work in Florida. He was a man of integrity, ability, energy and fearlessness. It warms my heart to know that he is still appreciated.

Very respectfully yours,

E.H.DeGroot,Jr.
